Se compararmos os objetivos de aprendizagem com os conteúdos programáticos acima descritos, verificamos que os alunos têm de ler, analisar e interpretar textos de fontes autênticas, pertencentes a áreas temáticas específicas relacionadas com as chamadas hard news por forma a desenvolver as quatro competências linguísticas básicas (ler, ouvir, falar e escrever) e a aumentar a sua competência cultural acerca do mundo em que vivem.

DEMONSTRATION OF THE SYLLABUS COHERENCE WITH THE CURRICULAR UNIT'S OBJECTIVES:

If we compare the learning outcomes with the syllabus contents above indicated, we will realize that students have to read, analyze and interpret authentic texts in English which belong to specific thematic areas related to the so called hard news in order to develop the four basic linguistic skills (reading, listening, speaking and writing) and raise their overall cultural awareness of the world in which we live.

- fornecer-lhes competências necessárias (especialmente aquisição de vocabulário) para integrar os exercícios de leitura com os significados específicos e globais dos textos ;
- dar-lhes a oportunidade de sintetizar, criticar e negociar o(s) sentido(s) dos textos com os colegas para melhorar a sua fluência oral;
- aplicar a informação recebida a outros assuntos ou contextos fora da sala de aula.

DEMONSTRATION OF THE COHERENCE BETWEEN THE TEACHING METHODOLOGIES AND THE LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The combination of a content-based syllabus with a communicative-based, student-centred approach aims at:
